Landscape facilitator – Cameroon (Ref. No.202349)

CIFOR-ICRAF brings more than 75 years of experience in harnessing the power of trees, forests, and agroforestry landscapes to address the most pressing global challenges of our time – biodiversity loss, climate change, food security, livelihoods, and inequity. It has partnerships in 64 countries, 159 funding partners and 192 active projects, alongside more than 2,200 completed projects across 92 nations. The organisation has an annual budget of USD 100 million, and a combined legacy investment of USD 2 billion in research and technology, policy, and development. On average, CIFOR-ICRAF research is cited nearly 137 times a day and appears in global media more than 3,000 times per year. CIFOR and ICRAF merged in 2019 and are both international organizations and CGIAR Research Centres. Learn more at cifor-icraf.org.

CIFOR-ICRAF is looking for a:
Landscape facilitator

Overview
CIFOR-ICRAF will be implementing the CASEVE-GTI project (Green and Resilient Northern Cameroon – Integrated Landscape Governance) between July 2023 and June 2028. We will use an integrated landscape management approach to solve the triple challenge of (i) supporting a growing population, (ii) preserving biodiversity, and (iii) mitigating and adapting to climate change. The intended impact of this action is a more inclusive territorial governance that promotes conflict prevention. We are therefore looking for two landscape facilitators to lead the implementation of CASEVE-GTI activities in the respective landscapes in North of Cameroon and facilitate multistakeholder processes and platforms.

Summary of responsibilities
- Provide technical lead in developing multistakeholder processes at landscape level (map actors, analyse networks and power relations, review existing platforms, establish and facilitate multistakeholder platforms); in collaboration with other members of the project team and partners, develop strategies for the roll out of project activities.
- Assist the Project Coordinator in day-to-day management of the project and in partnership development at landscape level.
- Contribute to the project monitoring and evaluation system, the digital platform for information sharing and to communication and public awareness events.
- Contribute to data collection on zoning and management plans and other evidence with a view of identifying conflict “hotspots”. In collaboration with other staff, produce publications, such as technical reports, technical sheets, training manuals, blogs, policy briefs and journal articles.
- Contribute to resource mobilization.
Requirements
• Solid theoretical background (MSc or Ir level) in social, economic, political sciences, or international development studies, or having a solid environmental and agricultural background with practical experience in inclusive participation and governance issues.
• At least 2 years of experience in working in multi-disciplinary and multi-actor teams.
• Experience with participatory methods, multistakeholder processes and platforms, including fostering dialogue, negotiation and conflict management.
• Basic knowledge on gender-sensitive project development and implementation.

Personal attributes and competencies:
• Willing to work in rural areas and travel in often remote areas.
• Proficiency in French and good working knowledge in English, knowledge of Fulfulde will be an asset.
• Excellent oral and written communication skills.
• Ability to work independently, as well as in multicultural and pluri-disciplinary teams.
• Ability to work under pressure and deliver on time.

Terms and conditions
• This is a Locally Recruited position. CIFOR-ICRAF offers competitive remuneration in local currency commensurate with skills and experience.
• The duty station will be Garoua, North region or Maroua, Far North region of Cameroon.

Application process
